1. Because a large number of sabotage acts were carried out recently by the populace, the Soviets sent agents directly from the U.S.S.R. to Rumania where they were assigned to responsible administrative positions enabling them to exercise real control. Soviet troops were sent to places where civilian agents were not posted.
2. Accordingly, Soviet mechanized units were sent to the Galati area in the regions adjacent to the oil wells of Ploesti. A guard was posted at points 500 meters away from each other from Ploesti to Constanta along the pipeline toward Reni in southern Bessarabia.
3. At a meeting of political cadres of the Rumanian Army held recently, a debate took place on measures required to prevent sabotage, such as that at the oil wells of Tintea and Bustenari.
4. Emil Bodnaras, the War Minister, has announced that the mines of Gura Ocritei, Razvadul de Jos, and Razvadul de Sus will be put under military control. The identity cards of the inhabitants of the area will be replaced. The workers will be supplied with special passes to prevent saboteurs from penetrating the area.
